FOLK WILL MAKE POLITICAL SPEECH.

By special arrangement Governor Jos. W. Folk of Missouri, who will appear in Clifton Monday evening at the Armory, where he will deliver one of his famous lectures, has consented to make a political speech on the same evening at Prettyman's Opera House immediately following his appearance at the Armory. A telegram from Governor Folk was received Friday afternoon giving his consent to make a speech in behalf of the Democratic ticket in Arizona.

The meeting at Prettyman's Opera House will be under the auspices of the Clifton Democratic Club and the voters of Clifton will have the pleasure of hearing one of the ablest statesmen of the nation discuss the live progressive issues of the day. The appearance of Gov. Folk of Missouri before the Clifton Democratic Club will be an unexpected treat of the campaign. In securing his consent to make a political speech the Democratic committee is under obligations to Prof. O. Halverson, who conducted the negotiations with Gov.

Folk by wire.

Special arrangements are being made by the committee for the big Democratic rally which will be held at Prettyman's Opera House on Monday evening, Nov. 20th, commencing at 9:45 p. m. At the conclusion of the speech by Gov. Folk light refreshments will be served. The Clifton brass band will furnish the music for the occasion and a special train will be run from Metcalf Monday evening to accommodate the big crowd who will come to hear a man who is a presidential possibility in 1912.

Gov. Folk comes to Clifton as the first attraction in the Clifton High School Entertainment course. He will fulfill his engagement first at the Armory where he will deliver his lecture. Court House Contract Let.

The contract for the building of the court house of Greenlee county was let this week by the Board of Supervisors. The successful bidder was Otto P. Kroeger, of El Paso, who bid $43,000 to construct the court house and jail. The material to be used is first class pressed gray brick. Mr. Kroeger entered into the contract to complete the building within six months from December 1, 1911. A bond in the sum of $21,500 was given for the faithful performance of the contract. Mr. E. C. Heck, of Clifton, was appointed as supervising architect at a compensation of five per cent of the contract price.

Unless the contract is completed by June 1, 1912, Mr. Kroeger will forfeit twenty dollars per day for each day thereafter until same is completed. Other bidders were Henry H. H. $47,000, Vandercreek & Black, $46,622, Spezia & Spezia $46,800, J. C. Hoff, $51,400.

Rev. Irwin F. McKay, former pastor at Prescott has been appointed by the annual conference which recently met in San Diego, Cal., to the pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South in Clifton and preached both morning and evening last Sunday and will continue to do so indefinitely. While still a young man he has had many years of experience in the ministry beginning so young that he was called "the Boy Preacher." He and his wife have rented Henry Hill's house near the high school where they will begin house keeping in a few days. Rev. S. M. Check of Wilcox was appointed presiding Elder in the place of James E. Crutchfield who has been transferred to Oregon. Rev. McKay begins hopefully to gather together the work left somewhat disorganized by the abandonment of it by its former pastor early in the spring.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Hoff

In a letter received by Archie Morrison Wednesday evening from Wm. Hoff, dated Los Angeles, former foreman of the A. C. foundry, he announced the death of Mrs. Hoff at Salt Lake, Utah, on the 7th inst. The funeral occurred at Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Hoff lived in Clifton for many years and Mrs. Hoff was a highly cultured lady whose friends and acquaintances were numbered by the hundreds. Of a kind and mild disposition she always had a pleasant word for all. Her many friends will be shocked to learn of her death as it was only a few weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Hoff visited Clifton. The cause of death was pneumonia and she was only ill ten days. The many friends of Mr. Hoff and his young son extend sympathy in their hour of bereavement.
